

Nicholas Bertram

President, The GIANT Company

Nicholas Bertram has served as President of The GIANT Company since January 2018. The GIANT Company is an omnichannel grocer known to customers as GIANT, MARTIN'S, GIANT Heirloom Market, GIANT Direct and MARTIN'S Direct.

Before his current position and several executive roles within the companies of Ahold Delhaize USA, he began his retail career over 20 years ago at JCPenney. He then joined Walmart as a part-time stocker, and over the next 12 years, quickly rose within leadership roles across in-store operations, human resources, and innovation. Nicholas then went to Jewel-Osco in Chicago as its senior vice president of retail before joining Ahold Delhaize USA in 2013.

At the moment, Nicholas also serves as chairperson for the board of directors of the Pennsylvania Chamber. He is also co-chair of the corporate council and a member of the foundation board of overseers for the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia. Recently, Nicholas was named a 2020 Most Admired CEO by The Philadelphia Business Journal.

Nicholas attained a BBA in marketing from Eastern Kentucky University and an MBA in global management from the University of Phoenix, along with post-graduate programs at Northwestern's Kellogg School of Management, The Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania and Harvard University.
